

BIKE CHALLENGE FAQ

1. How do I join a campaign?

Visit the event site

More Detailed Instructions on how to join as a Team Member

2. How do I submit a donation to a give butter campaign?

Step by Step Guide

3. How do I manage my team member page?

Handy Step by Step Guide to help manage your member page

4. Do I have to complete all the challenges to participate?

Nope. We understand you might not be able to complete each weekly challenge. Just submit your results for the weeks you're able to participate.

5. Do I have to be on a Team? Can I just join as an individual?

You have the option to join as a team or individual. As an individual, you'll have your own campaign page which you can manage. As a team, the Team Captain will have access to the campaign page.

6. Where do I send my challenge results at the end of the week?

You can email them to info@luckytoride.org. We'll also send you a shared spreadsheet to help track.

7. How much do I need to fundraise?

The recommendation is $300 with additional prizes for top fundraisers.

8. Do you have tips to help me fundraise?

Sure, Check out our resource toolkit. Here you'll find email templates, photos, logos, sample social post info. We can email you the toolkit too.

9. What if I fundraise more than the required amount?

You'll get more raffle tickets to use for our final celebration event in September.

10. Do I get a jersey?

You can purchase a 20th Anniversary jersey on the event site.

Just click on the Donate to a Team button. Jersey's are $75 and designed by Primal. Check out the Primal Size Chart. You can pick up your jersey at Lucky Bikes at 4394 S. Federal Blvd. Englewood, CO 80110. If you're out of state or out of the area we can mail it.

11. Can I mail a donation check?

Yes! Checks can be made out to Lucky to Ride at mailed to:

Lucky to Ride

20th Anniversary Bike Challenge

2751 W. Oxford Ave. Unit 2

Englewood, CO 80110

12. Do I have to live in Denver to participate?

No! While some challenges will be geared more for folks in town, anyone can participate from anywhere.

13. I'm not around all summer, can I pick and choose which challenges I want to participate in?

14. When are Challenges announced and how?

Challenges will be announced each Sunday evening by email so be sure to sign up on the event page, on the event page in the supporter column, and on Instagram.

15. Why should I fundraise more than the requested amount?

The more you fundraise the more entries you'll receive for our top prizes which include hotels and bikes.

16. What are the prizes?

Some of the prizes include gift packs and gift cards to

Burley

entries to the Bear 2025 hosted by Rattler Racing

Cat Eye

Colorado Rapids

Flower Child restaurants

Golden Mill

GoPro In-N-Out Burger

Maroon Bells Gloves

Mountainsmith

New Terrain Brewery

Osprey

Stanley Hotel

Sweet Bloom Coffee

Wolfbox

17. What does the money go to?

Our goal is to keep programs free for youth and families. All donations received allow us to offer programs to youth and families in need, at no cost. Lucky to Ride provides the bikes, helmets, tools and other equipment for kids in our Bike program. Students earn a bike, helmet and lock of their own upon completion of a Learn to Earn program. Additionally, Students in Youth@Work intern/apprentice programs gain valuable entrepreneurial job readiness skills to explore future career paths.

18. I don't have a bike but I want to participate. What can I do?

While Lucky Bikes doesn't have a bike rental option, we have hundreds of refurbished bikes at discounted prices. Come by the shop and we'll get you a bike.

I still have questions: who do I contact?

info@luckytoride.org